Beautifully designed eco-friendly home in Spokane's highly sought after South Hill neighborhood, located just a half block from Manito Park, Japanese Gardens, and Duncan Gardens. This thoughtfully crafted residence blends modern comfort with timeless style, featuring radiant heated concrete floors, expansive windows with custom shades, and handcrafted tile throughout. The open floor plan is ideal for both everyday living and entertaining, with seamless indoor-outdoor flow. Venture outside to enjoy multiple landscaped sitting areas, a vine-covered pergola, and a spacious oversized shed that complements the home design. Rare newer construction in this prime location offers energy efficiency, low-maintenance living, and immediate access to parks, shopping, medical services, and downtown Spokane. A one-of-a-kind opportunity to experience modern living in the heart of one of Spokane's most established neighborhoods.
