The Patsy Clark Mansion is a beautiful 15321 square foot mansion located in the heart of Spokane, WA. The magnificent property was designed by the renowned 19th century architect, Kirtland Cutter, for mining magnate Patrick Patsy Clark in 1889. Cutter was told to spare no expense in the design of the masterpiece and no corner was left untouched. The 3 story extravaganza suggests Spanish and Moorish influences, including rounded corner towers and arched loggias with architectural craftsmanship applied.
